Reflections for Sunday's Readings

Reading I: Deuteronomy 6: 2-6

Along with the call to "hear" comes the command to love God fully.

The great "Shema" (v.6-9) appears for the first time as Israel's act of faith.

Reading II: Hebrews 7: 23-28

The priesthood of Jesus is not bound by time, for He is "higher than the heavens" and is perfect. Through Him we are united with God.

The Gospel: Mark 12: 28b-34

Jesus, prompted by a questioning Scribe, issues the great two-part Commandment. He forever equates love of God with love of neighbor.

We pray for those in our parish who are sick, Carol Hartung, Donald Domitrowsky, Diana Falco, homebound, patients in Hudson Regional and Meadowview Hospital, Hudson Manor and the Fountain at the Manor

We welcome into our parish family

Nola Emeren Londah

who was brought to the Lord through the Sacrament of Baptism. May the grace of the sacrament remain with her always.
